Nomination Process

- Nominations can be filed beginning on May 1, 2026.
- Nomination day is August 21, 2026 (between 9:00 am and 2:00 pm).
- Withdrawal of a nomination must be filed with the clerk's office in writing before 2:00 pm on nomination day.
- It is recommended that a candidate personally attend at the clerk's office to withdraw a nomination.
- Clerk must certify nominations by 4:00 pm on Monday following nomination day (August 24, 2026).

Nomination Process (continued)

- Candidates must complete Form 1 (nomination paper) and submit it to the municipal clerk with the filing fee:
 - $200 for head of council or
 - $100 for all other offices
- The clerk may require candidates to show proof of eligibility or fill out a declaration that the individual is eligible to run
- In a ward system, an eligible voter in the municipality may run in any ward
- Municipal clerks may choose to permit municipal election candidates (for municipal council and school board trustee) and third-party advertisers to file nomination and registration paperwork electronically (e.g. without having to attend the clerk's office in person)

Running For a Different Office

- Occasionally, a candidate changes their mind and decides to run for a different office
- A candidate may run for only one office at a time
- If a candidate files a second nomination, the first nomination is deemed to be withdrawn
- If a candidate decides to run for a different office on the same council or as a school board trustee and both are elected at large, everything from the first campaign is transferred to the second campaign.
- Note: If a candidate was running for an at-large council position and decided to run for the head of council position the nomination filing fee would need to be topped up to $200
- If one or both offices is/are elected by ward, the two campaigns must be kept separate and a separate nomination filing fee would be required.

Third-Party Advertiser

- A third-party advertiser is an individual, corporation or trade union that is registered in the municipality to promote, support or oppose a candidate or a “yes” or “no” answer to a question on the ballot
- A third-party advertisement means an advertisement in any broadcast, print, electronic or other medium that has the purpose of promoting, supporting or opposing,
 - a) a candidate, or
 - b) a “yes” or “no” answer to a question on the ballot

Third-Party Advertiser – Eligibility / Ineligibility

Eligible
(any of)

- ✓ an individual
- ✓ a corporation
- ✓ a trade union

Ineligible
(any)

- ✗ a candidate whose nomination has been filed under section 33
- ✗ a federal political party registered under the Canada Elections Act or any federal constituency association or registered candidate at a federal election endorsed by that party
- ✗ a provincial political party, constituency association, registered candidate or leadership contestant registered under the Election Finances Act
- ✗ Crown in right of Canada or Ontario, a municipality or a local board
- ✗ any group or association that is not a corporation

Nomination Process: 25 Signature Requirement

- The nomination for an office on council must be endorsed by at least 25 persons using Form 2 - Endorsement of Nomination Form
 - Not required in municipalities with less than 4,000 electors (O.Reg. 101/97)
- Persons endorsing a nomination must be eligible to vote in an election for an office within the municipality if a regular election was held on the day that the person endorses the nomination
- Individuals may endorse more than one nomination
- The clerk is entitled to rely upon the information filed by the candidate

Registration of Third-Party Advertisers

- Individuals, corporations and trade unions will be required to identify themselves and provide mandatory information on all advertising
- There is no registration fee for third-party advertisers
- A third-party advertiser registers in the local municipality with the clerk responsible for conducting the election.
- Third parties may advertise in support of or opposition to any candidate being elected by voters in that municipality but are not required to declare support for or against a candidate or question on the ballot when they register to be a third-party candidate
- To advertise regarding questions on the ballot will require registration as a third-party advertiser

Registration of Third-Party Advertisers

- For the 2026 regular election, the registration cannot be filed earlier than May 1, 2026, and cannot be filed later than Friday, October 23, 2026, during the clerk's office hours
- Third-party advertisers may end their campaign by filing a written withdrawal with the clerk at any time prior to the end of the registration period for third-party advertisers
- Third-party advertisers who become candidates automatically end their advertising campaigns when they file their nomination

Campaign Finances

Contributions

- Candidates and third-party advertisers who accept contributions of money or incur expenses must open a bank account used exclusively for their election or advertising campaign
 - A contribution includes money, goods or services
 - Contributions to candidates from trade unions and corporations are prohibited in municipal elections
- Municipalities and local boards must establish rules and procedures regarding the use of municipal or board resources during the campaign period
 - Municipalities or local boards providing information to the public on a website or other electronic means is not a contribution

Candidates

Can accept contributions from:

- individuals who are normally resident in Ontario
- the candidate and their spouse

Third Party Advertisers

Can accept contributions from:

- individuals normally resident in Ontario
- trade unions that hold bargaining rights for employees in Ontario
- corporations that carry on business in Ontario.

- Corporations are deemed to be a single corporation if one of the corporations controls the others, directly or indirectly, or if all the corporations are owned or controlled by the same person or group of persons either directly or indirectly.

- Candidates and third party advertisers cannot accept contributions from:

- ✗ a federal political party, constituency association or registered candidate in a federal election
- ✗ a provincial political party, constituency association or registered candidate or leadership contestant
- ✗ federal or a provincial government
- ✗ a municipality
- ✗ a school board
- ✗ a business or group that is not a corporation

- Only third party advertisers can accept contributions from corporations and trade unions

- Contributions over $25 may be by cheque or money order or by a method that clearly shows where the funds originated
- If goods sold to raise funds are sold for $25 or less, that amount is considered campaign income, not a contribution
- Donations under $25 at fundraising events are not contributions
- Ticket price of fundraiser is a contribution
- Receipts must be issued for each contribution and should include the name and address of the contributor and the amount and date of the contribution
- No anonymous contributions except for pass the hat collections (limited to $25)

Contribution Limits

- Limit on contributions to any one candidate or third party advertiser is $1,200
- Contributor limits:
 - An aggregate total of $5,000 to any number of candidates for office on the same council
 - An aggregate total of $5,000 to any number of third party advertisers registered in the same municipality
 - Applies to any size of contribution or combination of money, goods and services
- Candidates and third party advertisers must inform contributors of these limits

Self-Funding Limits

- There is a limit on the amount that a candidate for a municipal council can make to their own campaign
 - This limit also applies to contributions made by the candidate's spouse
- This limit is based on the number of electors voting for the office, to a maximum of $25,000 per candidate:
 - $7,500 + $0.20 per elector for head of council
 - $5,000 + $0.20 per elector for other council offices
- These contributions must be deposited into the campaign account, a receipt provided, and the contributions reported on the financial statement

Borrowing

- Loans can only be borrowed from a bank or other recognized lending institution in Ontario and must be directed into the campaign account
- Loans may only be guaranteed by the candidate or their spouse
- Generally, the same borrowing rules apply to third-party advertisers

Campaign Expenses

- For the purposes of the Municipal Elections Act, 1996, the following are considered campaign expenses:

Candidates

- costs incurred for goods or services by or under the direction of a candidate wholly or partly for use in their election campaign are expenses

Third Party Advertisers

- costs incurred by or under the direction of a registered third-party advertiser for goods or services for use wholly or partly in relation to third-party advertisements that appear during an election in a municipality are expenses

- A campaign expense includes:
 - ✓ any expense incurred for goods and services in relation to an election
 - ✓ the replacement value of any goods held in inventory from a previous election
 - ✓ the equivalent value of any contribution of goods and services for use in whole or in part

Spending Limits

- Ontario Regulation 101/97
- The clerk's calculation of the spending limit is final

General Spending Limit

- Head of council: $7500 + 85 cents per elector
- All other offices: $5000 + 85 cents per elector

Spending Limit After Voting Day for Parties, Expressions of Appreciation, Gifts, Etc.

- 10% of the general spending limit

Spending Limits (Continued)

- The clerk will provide both candidates and third-party advertisers with two certificates:

Preliminary Estimate	Final Amount
<ul style="list-style-type: none">• Provided at the time of nomination (candidate) or registration (third party advertiser).• Based on the previous year's voters list	<ul style="list-style-type: none">• Provided by the clerk on or before September 30 of the election year.• Based on the most current voters' list after corrections.

- The higher of the two amounts is the spending limit

Expenses Not Subject to The Spending Limits

- Expenses that are not subject to the general campaign spending limit include:

- holding a fundraising event or activity
- expenses related to a recount *
- expenses incurred by a candidate with a disability that are directly related to the disability and would not have been incurred if not for the election
- audit and accounting fees
- expenses related to a compliance audit
- expenses related to a court action for a controverted election *

* Expenses related to a recount and controverted elections do not apply to third party advertisers)

Third Party Advertiser Spending Limits

- General spending limit
 - Formula: $5,000 plus $0.05 per elector, to a maximum of $25,000
 - Based on the number of electors entitled to vote in the election
- Separate spending limit for parties and other expressions of appreciation after voting day
 - Set at 10% of the general spending limit
 - Consistent with the spending limit in place for candidates

Campaign Finance Rules

- Campaign finance rules can be found in the Municipal Elections Act, 1996

Candidates

- Sections 88.8 to 88.11 and 88.15 to 88.20

Third Party Advertisers

- Sections 88.12 to 88.19, 88.21

- Bank account must be opened for election campaign purposes prior to spending money or accepting contributions
 - The account must be exclusive to the election/advertising campaign
- All contributions of money must be deposited into the campaign account

Campaign Finance – Record Keeping

- Accurate record keeping is a legislated requirement.
- Candidates and third-party advertisers must keep records of:
 - receipts issued for every contribution
 - value of every contribution
 - whether contribution is in form of money, goods or services
 - contributor's name and address
 - every expense including the receipts obtained for each expense
- Campaign finance records for the 2026 election must be retained until the next elected council/local board (2030) board has been sworn in

- As a best practice, candidates and third-party advertisers should:
 - ensure that receipts are stored in a secure place
 - have a multi-part receipt (one for contributor, one for candidate to keep).
 - make sure that receipts are sequentially numbered
 - consider including contribution limits on the receipt
 - have the bank provide monthly statements and cancelled cheques for the account
 - produce duplicate deposit slips for every deposit
 - maintain a petty cash fund

Campaign Advertisements

- Candidates and third-party advertisers cannot cause an election campaign advertisement to appear unless they provide the following information to the broadcaster or publisher in writing:
 - the name of the candidate/registered third-party advertiser
 - the name, business address and telephone number of the individual who deals with the broadcaster or publisher under the direction of the candidate/registered third-party advertiser
 - the third-party advertiser must also include the name of the municipality where the third-party advertiser is registered.
- No broadcaster or publisher shall cause a campaign or third-party advertisement to appear unless this information has been provided
- The period during which third party advertisements can appear is May 1, 2026 until the close of voting on voting day on October 26 2026

- The broadcaster or publisher of a third-party or candidate advertisement shall maintain records containing the following information for a period of four years after the date the advertisement appears and shall permit the public to inspect the records during normal business hours:
 - the name of the candidate/registered third-party advertiser
 - the name, business address and telephone number of the individual who deals with the broadcaster or publisher under the direction of the candidate/registered third-party advertiser
 - a copy of the advertisement, or the means of reproducing it for inspection.
 - a statement of the charge made for its appearance.

Financial Statement

- Candidates and third-party advertisers must file their financial statement on or before 2:00 pm Tuesday March 30, 2027
- If a candidate or third-party advertiser feels that they will not meet the deadline, they may apply to the courts for an extension prior to the March 30, 2027 deadline

- Candidates can close their campaign and file their financial statement after voting day until December 31, 2026
- Third party advertisers can close their campaign and file their financial statement after early withdrawal or at any time after voting day up to December 31, 2026
- Clerks are required to make public by April 30, 2027 a report (on a website or in another electronic format) setting out all candidates and indicating whether each candidate complied with the filing requirements
- The clerk shall as soon as possible after April 30, 2027 make a list of all registered third party advertisers available to the public and the list must indicate whether each has filed the required financial statement and auditor's report.
- Clerks can determine conditions and limits regarding electronic filing of financial statements

- All contributions must be reported.
- The names of contributors who contribute more than $100 must be reported on the financial statement.
- The clerk is required to make financial statements available to the public for viewing on a website or in an electronic format free of charge.
- Financial statements must include an auditor's report if expenses or contributions exceed $10,000.

- The candidate's nomination fee is refundable only if the financial statement is filed on time
- A candidate or third-party advertiser who misses the filing deadline may file within the 30-day grace period, provided a $500 late filing fee is paid to the municipality
- A candidate or third-party advertiser may resubmit a financial statement to correct an error up until the filing deadline

Campaign Surplus

- Entire amount of a campaign surplus must be paid to the clerk.
- A candidate or third-party advertiser is entitled to a refund of any contributions they (or their spouse, if an individual) made to the campaign before the filing of the financial statement and the payment of the surplus to the clerk.
- The clerk holds the surplus monies in trust for the candidate or third-party advertiser in the event of a compliance audit.
- If there is no compliance audit, the surplus becomes the property of the municipality or school board.

Compliance and Enforcement

Compliance Audit

- Every council and school board must establish a compliance audit committee
- Eligible elector may apply for a compliance audit of your campaign finances
 - Applications must be submitted to the clerk within 90 days of the campaign financial statement filing deadline
- Committee will
 - Consider the application
 - Decide whether to grant or reject the application
- A person may commence legal action on their own in court

Compliance Audit – If Granted

- Committee appoints an auditor if it grants the application
 - Auditor is entitled to have access to all of the financial records related to the campaign
 - Auditor will produce a report
- Committee meets to consider auditor's report and decide whether to commence legal action
- Only a court can decide if candidate contravened the Act and apply penalties

Automatic Penalties

Any of the following contraventions

1. Failing to file a financial statement by end of the 30-day grace period or fail to apply to the court for an extension before March 30, 2027
2. Exceeding spending limit
3. Fail to turn over a surplus to the clerk when you file financial statement

Results in

Automatic Penalties

1. Forfeiture of office if elected
2. Become ineligible to run or be appointed to fill a vacancy until after the 2030 election

Other Penalties

- If convicted of an offence under the Municipal Elections Act, you may be subject to following penalties:
 - A fine of up to $25,000
 - Ineligibility to vote or run in next general election
 - Up to 6 months in prison
 - Forfeiture of elected office, if the judge finds that you committed the offence knowingly
- If convicted of exceeding the spending limit, you may also be fined the amount by which you exceeded the limit

Voters' List

Elections Ontario

- A non-partisan office responsible for administering provincial elections in Ontario
 - Administration for local elections continues to be the responsibility of municipal clerks
- On January 1, 2024, Elections Ontario became responsible for managing voter information for local elections
 - The permanent register of electors is a database of individuals eligible to vote in provincial and local elections in Ontario
 - Elections Ontario is responsible for maintaining the information stored on the permanent register of electors on an ongoing basis through data-sharing agreements with federal, provincial, and municipal sources and through updates made directly by electors
 - Elections Ontario is responsible for preparing the preliminary list of electors and providing it to municipal clerks

The Voters' List

- Becomes public document on September 1, 2026

 - Are the only person who may share the list
 - If you give a copy to someone, they cannot share it further
 - Must keep track of who you have shared the list with
 - Physical copies must be returned to you
 - Electronic copies destroyed and a written acknowledgement to you that it was destroyed
 - On or before the day your campaign ends, must
 - Destroy copy you received from clerk
 - Ensure all print copies you shared are returned to you, then destroyed
 - Ensure you receive written acknowledgement from anyone you gave an electronic version to that they destroyed that electronic copy

The Voters' List – Written Acknowledgement

- Before sharing the list with someone, you must obtain a written acknowledgement that confirms they will:
 - ✓ Only use list for electoral purposes and not for commercial purposes
 - ✓ Not share or give copies to anyone else
 - ✓ Return physical copies to you
 - ✓ Destroy electronic copies and provide written acknowledgement that it was destroyed
- Written acknowledgement should set out dates for returning the list and/or confirming electronic copies were destroyed
- Keep the written acknowledgements until November 15, 2030 (when next council takes office)

Scrutineers, Key Dates and Resources
