4. Commitment to General Review Form

Additional Considerations

It is the responsibility of the property owner/applicant to obtain all necessary approvals related to the demolition. Not all requirements are listed on this form.

Heritage Designated or Registered Buildings

You may require a separate heritage approval if your property is:

- designated under the Ontario Heritage Act,
- located in a heritage conservation district, or
- subject to a heritage conservation easement (a legal agreement to protect heritage elements that applies to anyone who owns the land).

If your property is not designated, but is included on a municipal heritage register, the Ontario Heritage Act requires that the property owner provide municipal council 60 days notice of their intention to demolish or remove a building or structure located on the property.

Record of Site Condition

Where the land use/zoning of a property is proposed to change to a more sensitive land use (i.e. commercial or industrial to residential) a "Record of Site Condition" (RSC) may be required. An RSC summarizes the environmental condition of a property at a particular time based on the completion of environmental site assessments (ESA's). An RSC must be completed by a Qualified Person and filed with the Ministry of the Environment & Climate Change (MOECC).

Ministry of Environment Approvals

Additional Ministry of Environment approvals may be required if any of the answers to the below questions are yes:

- a. Are there any fluid storage tanks, above or below grade, on site?
- b. Are there any outstanding Orders issued by the Ministry of the Environment or the Ministry of Labour in respect of the subject premises or owners?
- c. Does the structure contain Polychlorinated Biphenyls (PCB's) as defined under the Environmental Protection Act? PCB may be located in various electrical equipment including, but not limited to, light ballasts, transformers, capacitors, etc.
- d. Does the structure contain Ozone Depleting Substances which require proper handling in accordance with applicable regulations under the Environmental Protection Act?
- e. Are there hazardous or "controlled products", as defined by WHMIS, on site? For example, past land uses which might indicate the presence of radioactive materials include dentist offices or veterinary clinics. Other indications could be pipes containing chemicals, oils or solvents.

Designated Substances

Ensure there are no designated substances as stated in the Occupational Health and Safety Act and if there are, file a designated substances report (DSR) with the Ministry of Labour.

Asbestos

The Ministry of Labour website outlines requirements related to the demolition, alteration and repair of a building including the responsibilities of an owner before tendering or arranging for demolition, alteration or repair of a building.

Wells

Abandonment of a well shall be done in accordance with the Ontario Well Water Regulation #903 and Ministry of Environment Requirements.
